- IF YOU ARE IN AN ACCIDENT:
- Stay calm and contact the police.
 - At the scene, write down the other driver's information: license plate number, name, address, insurance company and the year and make of the automobile.
 - Get the names and addresses of witnesses.
 - If you are injured, see a doctor. Some injuries often do not become symptomatic until after the accident. If you develop symptoms after the accident, be sure to tell the doctor about the accident.
 - Contact your insurance company.
 - Do not talk to the other insurance company until you have talked to your lawyer.
 - Insurance companies have investigators, claims adjusters and attorneys to protect their rights. You should have someone to protect your rights.
